LEGISLATION

3) In any other case, the Board must consider whether any of the grounds for refusal applies and—

(a) if none of them applies, the Board must grant the application, or

(b) if any of them applies, the Board must refuse the application.

(4) The Board may hold a hearing for the purposes of determining any application which is to be determined in accordance with subsection (3).

(5) Where the Board does not hold a hearing for that purpose, the Board must ensure that, before determining the application, the applicant is given an opportunity to comment on any such notice or report as is referred to in subsection (2).

(6) The grounds for refusal are—

(a) that the premises to which the application relates are excluded premises,

(b) that the application must be refused under [\[section 56\(6A\), 64\(2\) or 65\(3\)\]](#)³,

(c) that the Licensing Board considers the granting of the application would be inconsistent with one or more of the licensing objectives,

(d) that, having regard to—

(i) the nature of the activities proposed to be carried on in the premises to which the application relates,

(ii) the location, character and condition of the premises, and

(iii) the persons likely to frequent the premises,

the Board considers that the premises are unsuitable for use for the sale of alcohol.

4) Where a Licensing Board grants an occasional licence, the Board may impose such other conditions (in addition to the mandatory conditions) as they consider necessary or expedient for the purposes of any of the licensing objectives.

(5) A Licensing Board may not impose a condition under subsection (4) which—

- (a) is inconsistent with any mandatory condition
 - (b) would have the effect of making any such condition more onerous or more restrictive, or
 - (c) relates to a matter (such as planning, building control or food hygiene) which is regulated under another enactment.
- include, in particular, conditions of the kind described in subsection (7).
- (7) Those are conditions requiring anything to be done, or prohibiting or restricting the doing of anything, in connection with—
- (a) the sale of alcohol on the premises in respect of which an occasional licence has effect, or
 - (b) any other activity carried on in such premises.
