T	The Articles of the UNCRC and	I will affect children and young people up to the age of 187 the child wellbeing indicators under the Chaldren and Young People (Scotland) and young people up to the age of 18, including non-citizen and undocumented			All of the above aspects of the proposal will have an impact on young people. As in example, approximately 30% of those supported through the Fairer Aberricen Fund are aged under 16. Sistems and SMMU are both youth- orientated. It is likely that a significant proportion of those using community projects and community centries will all only oung expole.  The review of the library estate is likely to have an impact on the development
P 'li	Direct' impact refers to policies proposed changes, e.g. in earl Indirect' impact refers to policie them. Examples include: housi	indirect – will the policylimeasure have on children and young people? measures where children and young people are directly affected by the years, education, child protection or looked after children (children in care), extremeasures that are not directly amond at children but will have an impact on na proposals, local transport schemes.			of youth literacy. Projects such as SHMU and sistems contribute to the development of skills which can lead to increased confidence and improved work prospects. Community Projects and Community Centres contribute to the alleviation of child poverty.
