Note: you are unlikely to have a further opportunity to add to your statement of appeal at a later date, so it is essential that you produce all of the information you want the decision-maker to take into account.

You should not however raise any new matter which was not before the planning authority at the time it decided your application (or at the time expiry of the period of determination), unless you can demonstrate that the new matter could not have been raised before that time or that it not being raised before that time is a consequence of exceptional circumstances.

We are attaching a separate document highlighting the reason why we are requesting that the refusal be reviewed

Have you raised any matters which were not before the appointed officer at the time the Determination on your application was made? *
