Good morning Arlene,

Yes, I can confirm the Chief Constable is happy to waive the 28 day period. This application has had the route amended at the request of Aberdeen City Council, in agreement with Police Scotland.

We will get the licensing response to you in due course.

Importance: High

We have received today a notice under Section 62 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 of a Proposed Procession out with the required 28 day period. This notification was previously made but the route has had to be amended due to road works taking place.

Can you please confirm that the Chief Constable is willing to accept the notification out with the statutory timescales.?

Thereafter it will be necessary to convene a meeting of the Licensing Committee's urgent business committee to determine if the Members wish to accept the notification. If they agree to do so, I will circulate the notification in the usual manner. The date of the procession is Saturday 26 July.

Regards

Arlene Dunbar
