3: Equality and Human Rights Impact Assessment

a- What are the aims and intended effects of this proposal?

To reduce street-begging in Aberdeen city centre.

c- List the outcomes from any consultation that relate to equalities and/or human rights issues e.g. with employees, service users, Unions or members of the public that has taken place in relation to the proposal.

Most complaints to police relate to aggression and other potentially criminal acts towards members of the public.

The Council receives only a small number of complaints about street-begging.

The matter periodically attracts significant negative local media interest.

The reports suggests further work is required to collect further evidence about the issue and particularly from members of the public, business and links between begging and other criminal activity in the locality.

Giving money to beggars can be interpreted as public support in response to the perceived needs of beggars.

9: Completion Terminology:

Assessment Pre-screening Rating:

This section will highlight where there is the obvious potential for a negative impact and subsequent risk of negative media coverage and reputational damage to the Council. Therefore, a full impact assessment is required, for example around sensitive issues such as marching, Gypsy/ Traveller issues, change to social care provision. It should also be completed to evidence why a full impact assessment was not required, example, there is no potential negative impact on people.

Assessment Rating:

After completing this document, rate the overall assessment as follows:

Red: As a result of performing this assessment, it is evident that we will discriminate (direct, indirect, unintentional or otherwise) against one or more of the nine groups of people who share Protected Characteristics. It is essential that the use of the proposal be suspended until further work or assessment is performed and the discrimination is removed.

Red Amber: As a result of performing this assessment, it is evident that a risk of negative impact exists to one or more of the nine groups of people who share Protected Characteristics. However, a genuine determining reason may exist that could legitimise or justify the use of this proposal and further professional advice should be taken.

Amber: As a result of performing this assessment, it is evident that a risk of negative impact exists and this risk may be removed or reduced by implementing the actions detailed within the Action Planning section of this document.

Green: As a result of performing this proposal does not appear to have any adverse impacts on people who share Protected Characteristics and no further actions are recommended at this stage.

Equality Data:	Equality data is internal or external information that may indicate how the proposal being analysed can affect different groups of people who share the nine Protected Characteristics – referred to hereafter as ‘Equality Groups’. Examples of Equality Data include: (this list is not definitive) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1: Application success rates by Equality Groups 2: Complaints by Equality Groups 3: Service usage and withdrawal of services by Equality Groups 4: Grievances or decisions upheld and dismissed by Equality Groups
Genuine Determining Reason	Certain discrimination may be capable of being justified on the grounds that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) A genuine determining reason exists (ii) The action is proportionate to the legitimate aims of the organisation Where this is identified, it is recommended that professional and legal advice is sought prior to completing an Equality Impact Assessment.

An Equality Impact Assessment is not, in itself, legally binding and should not be used as a substitute for legal or other professional advice.
