SYNOPSIS

Our fun and ever-popular short film screenings encompass the best new short films from around the world which spotlight young voices on issues of power, conflict, gender equality, food, education and the environment. A unique mix of animation and short documentary, for ages 8+.

A Girl's Life in Kibera

10-year-old Eunice, who lives in Kibera, Kenya, the largest urban slum in Africa, talks about her home, her school and her dream of becoming a doctor and travelling the world.

Aliah

A stylised animation about a young girl's dreams of new life in a war-torn Middle Eastern country.

Do Not Read This

A short campaign film raising awareness of the fact that 1 in 7 people in the world can't read. How different would your life be if you were one of them?

Ice Is Melting

A playful, beach-set short about ice cream and global warming.

Moonwalk

A short campaign film about the distance walked each day by South African women and children fetching clean water for their families.

Nasi Lemak

A playful tribute to the people of Pudu Market, Kuala Lumpur, and their national dish, nasi lemak.

Table Manners

Three puppets – a bear, a pig and a squirrel – wander the forest in search of food.

The Numberleys

Friends 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 live in an orderly, black-and-white world where there is no alphabet. One day, they set out to create each letter of the alphabet and bring color, creativity and jellybeans to their world.

Water Path

A young Colombian girl's hazardous journey to fetch clean water from the spring.
