Subject: Public Entertainment Licence Lady Boys

Good Morning

Public Entertainment Licence

Despite problems with this applicant in previous years with regard to indiscriminate fly posting within the city and Aberdeenshire, the applicant has seen it fit to repeat the problems again this year.

An advertising trailer was dumped on council land opposite the Doubletree Hotel on the Beach Boulevard and posters have been erected in unauthorised and arguably dangerous locations.

I would like to object to this application on the grounds that applicant is not a fit and proper person to hold a public entertainment licence.

Best Wishes

John Reynolds
