Comment Reasons:

Comment: The addition of seating outside brightens an otherwise dreary corner. Cafe culture is a popular trend and the outdoor seating is a natural extension of the indoor seating area, and would probably only be put out on nice days and mainly in summer....so not even a permanent fixture. In the time the seating was out earlier this year, it appeared popular, and I did not observe any issue with litter or debris (as I walk past the corner several times a day). It was nice to see groups sitting outside enjoying the fresh air (also handy for dog owners who are not allowed inside with their pets). I support the application.
