28.3 Children may be adequately protected from harm by the action taken to protect adults but they may also need particular measures to be taken. When addressing the issue of Protecting Children from Harm the applicant must consider those factors which may particularly impact on children.

These include but are not exhaustive:

- the provision of entertainment or services of an adult or sexual nature are provided
- employment of members of staff who have convictions for serving alcohol to children, or convictions against children in premises where families are encouraged.
