INTRODUCTION

The Aberdeen City Local Outcome Improvement Plan and underpinning North, South and Central Locality Plans set out a vision for Aberdeen as 'a place where all people can prosper'. This Community Learning and Development (CLD) plan supports the delivery of this vision and delivery of the plans by providing a framework for greater collaborative working amongst organisations directly and indirectly delivering CLD services in Aberdeen (See Appendix 1 for list of key CLD partners). This plan is intended to be dynamic and flexible, responding and adapting to emerging needs and priorities.

Learning changes lives for the better and opens opportunities for us all to achieve our full potential. Everyone should have the opportunity to learn, develop and engage in their communities in a way that enhances their lives and contributes to thriving communities. Effective Community Learning and Development (CLD) is life changing for people, families, and communities. It inspires ideas, ambition and citizenship. It helps our city and our communities to flourish.

Community learning and development brings an early intervention and prevention focus providing young people and adults with skills for life, learning and work addressing personal and social development, active citizenship, and individual health and wellbeing issues and empowering people, both as individuals and in communities, to make positive changes in their lives. It also focuses on growing community-led groups and services that make communities more cohesive, sustainable, and better able to overcome the challenges they face, as well as working with community groups to support them to be well-run, sustainable, and independent

Effective community learning and development practice plays an essential role in ensuring people, particularly those facing discrimination and disadvantage, gain the confidence and skills they need to influence decisions that affect their lives.

We will provide CLD opportunities that improve the confidence, self-esteem, and wellbeing of people in our city to become happier and more positive and feel they can make a difference, not only to their own lives, but to others. We will continue to work with schools and deliver family learning to ensure our pupils from the most deprived areas in our city have the same life chances as those from more affluent areas. We will ensure that people gain and build essential skills for life and work including English language and reading, writing and numeracy. We will develop digital skills across a range of platforms to ensure people have the confidence they need to access, use and benefit from the advantages and opportunities offered by the digital world. We will inspire and develop the skills of young people, adults and families to volunteer and get more involved in their communities. We will work together to develop volunteering opportunities and to increase the capacity building activities in the city.

CLD creates a fairer and more equal place to live, learn and work. We aim to enable those who experience poverty and health related inequalities in our city to access and participate in life changing CLD opportunities which build skills, confidence and aspirations. We are committed to working closely to target resources more effectively at those who have the greatest need to address our health and poverty related inequalities. We will work with partners to address barriers and improve access to life changing CLD opportunities. We will deliver a range of high quality learning to improve essential literacy, numeracy, language and digital skills.

CLD is essential to supporting economic growth particularly for those who experience disadvantage and inequality. We will deliver lifelong learning opportunities to develop the skills, confidence and aspirations required for inclusive growth and active participation. We will develop the talents and ambitions of our young people to enhance their employability and support them into attractive jobs. We will also work with people who are long-term unemployed or are in receipt of benefits to build their confidence and aspirations.

CLD plays a significant role in making our communities more resilient. It empowers local people to make change in their communities. It inspires activism and pride and enables people to use their skills and talents. We will work with communities to enable them to shape services, influence decisions and become more inclusive. We will address barriers and build skills and confidence which leads to increased volunteering in our city. We will foster skills for participation and work with communities to reduce poverty, inequalities and loneliness. We will work with communities to support them to identify issues and find solutions. We will build the capacity of our citizens to influence the decisions and allocation of resources which affect their families and communities. Effective CLD can thus help services just as it can local communities.

This Plan

'Community learning and development' (CLD) includes a huge variety of informal and formal learning, delivered locally in our communities by a wide range of organisations and agencies, in a variety of different ways and different settings. This diversity is a great strength, but for individuals and communities, this can sometimes make it harder to know what support and opportunities are available. It can sometimes mask duplication of effort, or gaps in provision, and make it difficult for learners or communities to know who to ask to develop activities which support their development needs.

The aim of this plan is not to capture all the current and proposed CLD activity of individual providers in one document, but instead to focus on some shared Improvement aspirations for the next three years. This plan describes the clear role of CLD in addressing key challenges around health and poverty related inequalities. This plan offers shared commitment, aspirations and priorities to work more collaboratively to overcome the most significant issues facing our city and its communities. It will help us improve life chances for individuals, families and communities to contribute to and benefit from the city's prosperity.

This plan places the people of Aberdeen at the heart of community learning and development planning and sets out our vision, challenges and priorities to help address some of our city's biggest and most challenging issues including our health and poverty related inequalities. It sees people as assets and recognises the need to work with individuals, families, and communities to support them to address issues and improve their circumstances

This Plan will be an evolving and living document which will be used to help shape and develop the CLD offer in Aberdeen and bring together providers to work ever more effectively in partnership for the benefit of learners and participants. It will be regularly monitored, and it will continually evolve to reflect and respond to the changing circumstances, needs and wants of our communities. Together we will ensure high quality CLD opportunities that reduce disadvantage, promote inclusion, and raise aspirations. We will work together to target resources to address barriers and improve access and participation.

Our key ambition is to strengthen the planning, leadership and decision making of CLD in the city. Given the scale and complexity of need in the city and the number and range of providers, it is challenging to get a coherent picture of the reach and impact of CLD. However, we understand that it is crucial to find ways to gather and share data which evidences the need for and impact of our work.

We will continue to work with other CLD partners in the city and in other authorities, regionally and nationally, to share best practice, develop staff and co-produce learning content. This will lead to an increasingly robust and structured approach to evidencing impact and quality assuring our provision.

Effective self-evaluation by groups, services and partnerships remains key to improving performance and delivering better outcomes for learners and communities. The process for this CLD plan is interlocked with self-evaluation, performance management and impact measurement.

Next Steps: Implementing the Plan

This strategic plan describes the lead role of CLD in addressing our key challenges around health, poverty related inequalities and social and economic recovery. A supporting implementation plan with smart actions and targets and measurable outcomes will detail how we will deliver services

The focus of this plan's evaluation will be to capture the difference made and tell the story of how individuals, groups and communities have benefited from provision. We will work to create mechanisms to capture impact at scale where significant financial resources are allocated to CLD activity

Statutory Background

The Strategic Guidance for Community Planning Partnerships: Community Learning and Development (2012) underpins national CLD policy in Scotland. The Guidance sets out the core contribution that CLD activities can make to national outcomes: with specific reference to:

1. Improved life chances for people of all ages, including young people in particular, through learning, personal development and active citizenship; and
2. Stronger, more resilient, supportive, influential and inclusive communities and includes clear guidance that CLD should support ‘primarily disadvantaged or vulnerable groups and individuals of all ages to engage in learning, with a focus on bringing about change in their lives and communities.’

While directed at Community Planning Partnerships (CPPs) and recognising the vital role played by a wide range of organisations and services, the guidance clearly identifies a role for local authorities ‘to provide clear leadership and direction, and to drive the action needed to ensure we maximise the contribution of CLD partners in the reform of public services.’

The Aberdeen Education Authority has responsibility to ensure its delivery, however it is a requirement of the strategic guidance that the plan is reflective of all those who consider themselves to be deliverers of Community Learning and Development, whether within the statutory, voluntary or community sector. It is also a critical element of the Plan that these partners coalesce and take joint responsibility for writing, planning and evaluating the work associated with the Plan in partnership with the community.

The Requirements for Community Learning and Development (Scotland) Regulations 2013 place a statutory requirement on local authorities to publish a plan every three years. The plan should outline how the local authority will co-ordinate and secure ‘adequate and efficient’ Community Learning and Development (CLD) provision with other sector partners.

CLD PRIORITIES

CLD Plan 2021-4 – Engagement

The development of this plan has taken place during a global pandemic which has meant many of the traditional ways of engaging with communities and staff, including meeting face to face has not been possible. Instead, most engagement has taken place on-line and through virtual mechanisms to ensure that views have been captured. In an attempt to ensure citizens and partners were involved in the process the following engagement opportunities took place:

In March 2021, CLD Partners attended online sessions to discuss priorities for the CLD Plan, and how the impacts of the pandemic would inform CLD planning in 2021-24. Follow up sessions were held in April, where partners discussed these priorities in themed areas of Youth Work & Wider Achievement, Adult Learning and Community Development. Representatives from around 40 services/organisations attended these sessions (with some attending more than one themed meeting). Partners were invited to submit written comments if unable to attend any of the sessions.

A survey was distributed to CLD learners in May inviting feedback on the priorities initially identified and asking whether these were currently being offered by the group/service/organisation they were involved with. A total of 77 responses were received representing a range of organisations. This was followed by a survey sent to Partners in June, to identify current and planned actions that would contribute to the delivery of the priorities identified during earlier sessions and learner survey responses.

Writing groups were formed for each of the CLD areas to produce a first draft of the CLD Plan which was distributed to Partners for comment in July. A number of partners provided feedback which was subsequently incorporated into the draft Plan.

Services/organisations that attended sessions: AHSCP, Community Planning, Creative Learning, Education Support (Virtual Learning), Equalities team, Fit Like Hubs, Integrated Children & Families – Residential Services, Libraries, Localities, New Scots/Refugee Project, Priority Families, Rangers Service, Education Service, Quality Improvement (Education, Aberdeen Foyer, Aberdeen Lads Club, Aberdeen Science Centre, ACE Voices, ACVO, Community Empowerment Group, Dyce Community Centre Association, Inchgarth Community Centre, Kings Community Church, NE Sensory Services, Police Scotland, Scottish Care, SHMU, Skills Development Scotland, Sport Aberdeen. Partnership Forums – Bucksburn, Cults, Grammar, Harlaw, Hazlehead, Lochside, Northfield, Oldmachar, St Machar

Priority 1 Youth Work

Youth Work can help young people to become more confident, resilient and optimistic for the future. It can support young people to develop skills that will improve their life chances and unlock their potential. It is an empowering approach that enables young people to take responsibility and have control over their lives. Young people who are confident, resilient and have skills valued by employers will help partners achieve the outcomes relating to LOIP 7.1. Young people who are confident and empowered will use their voice to articulate their needs and aspirations to policy makers and service providers; this will help the partnership to progress with the aim of Aberdeen becoming a Child Friendly City (LOIP 8). Young people who enjoy good mental health because they are engaged in positive activities, have outlets for their energy, feel connected to their community and wider networks, have the skills and resilience to manage situations that are challenging and difficult; this will benefit everyone.

Priority 3 Community Development

“Community Development is about making a fairer, just and more inclusive society with strong communities at the heart of decision making.” (Scottish Community Development Centre) CD in 60 seconds | SCDC - We believe communities matter

People can and want to do more for their localities to improve the life chances for people of all ages and build stronger, more resilient, influential and inclusive communities.

The aim of an ‘asset based’ community development approach is to strengthen communities enabling communities to increase control over their lives, being supported to do things for themselves and having their voices heard in the planning and delivery of services. We do this by improving people’s knowledge, skills, confidence, organisational ability and resources, through community learning and development, which makes an important contribution towards promoting lifelong learning, social inclusion and active citizenship.

Community Development partners agreed priorities and projects that directly contribute to Stretch Outcomes in the LOIP and the three Locality Plans as detailed below.

Workforce Development

CLD partners will work together to design workforce development priorities that are informed by an assessment of the needs of the whole CLD workforce in the area – including public and third sector, paid and unpaid workers

Continuous improvement is part of the ethos of CLD. As part of our commitment to improve we will ensure that we have a highly skilled, confident and committed workforce, including our volunteers. We will also increase opportunities and improve pathways to volunteer and provide targeted support to break down barriers and ensure volunteers reflect our city's vibrant diversity.

Workforce Development – CLD partners will work together to:-

- Develop progression routes for volunteers supported by deliberate interventions to support their development.
- Develop ability to deliver PDA's and other accredited awards which support the progression of people engaged in working with communities.
- Develop and deliver training programmes and resources to support the upskilling of workers, including programmes around digital/blended learning and outdoor learning.
- Develop a programme of training and support to enhance the ability of community groups and providers to achieve 'volunteer friendly' status.
- Work with North Alliance to develop shared programmes of training for community learning and development practitioners and address gaps in opportunities.
- Develop the capacity of community learning and development providers to offer Community Learning and Development placements in Aberdeen
- Explore with partners the delivery of accredited courses for those engaged in community learning and development provision.
- Develop the role of NESCOL and local Universities in offering opportunities for progression and career development

Our Regional Approach in the North

Aberdeen City Council is one of eight regional local authority partner members in the Regional Improvement Collaborative for the North – The Northern Alliance. Other members are: Aberdeen City, Moray, Highland, Argyll and Bute, Shetland, Orkney and the Western Isles (Eilean Siar).

The Northern Alliance Regional Improvement Collaborative (RIC) aims to develop a culture of collaboration, sharing of expertise and creating local and regional networks to improve the educational and life chances of children and young people.

The Northern Alliance – A Regional Improvement Collaborative

There are 9 workstreams delivering against the above agenda including a specific CLD Work-stream which is managed and delivered through the local authority Lead Officers for CLD. Support for this is provided by Education Scotland through their Education Officers. This has been particularly evident in their involvement in CLD Planning and in aspects of continuous improvement.

The current operational improvement priorities of the CLD Leads group are to:

- Capture approaches to wider achievement for young people and adult learners and share practice
- Capture and analyse youth participation and youth voice
- Further develop approaches to Family Learning
- Increase access to professional learning, including online

Read about our collective achievements here Northern Alliance CLD Sway

Building on these priorities going forward we will be establishing and supporting a Youth Advisory Group for the region, planning and delivering professional learning in STEM (Science, technology, engineering and maths) using a funding award from Education Scotland, strengthening networking around equalities and young people through a new forum, extending practice sharing in relation to Family Learning and contributing to the wider collaborations created through the Regional Improvement Collaborative.

Professional Learning for practitioners and the North Alliance

Access to professional learning and development for practitioners in CLD in the North is enhanced through a regional network of partners, including from the third sector, known as the North Alliance. In turn, this network is a member of the national grouping of CLD Training Consortia. The North Alliance is awarded a small amount of annual funding from the CLD Standards Council in Scotland to deliver professional learning activities for practitioners across the geography.

A Statement of CLD needs which will not be met within the period of the Plan

This Plan is reflective of the current position in Aberdeen but it is acknowledged that due to ongoing changes locally and nationally, particularly in the context of the impact of Covid-19, there is likely to be emerging unmet need in service delivery and support. We will continue to use our community engagement processes and listen to learners' voices to identify unmet need, record it and then consider whether it can be addressed in some other way by partners or community organisations. A significant part of our provision is provided through the voluntary commitment of active citizens as individuals and within groups, to identify and resolve unmet learning need.

How We Work Together

City wide arrangements for delivery - how we engage partners across the City in CLD:

Partnership forums - Partnership Forums should discuss the issues being faced across the community to determine priorities, agree how to allocate resources and identify where gaps in provision remain. Once priorities for improvement have been identified, Forums should consider how each individual service represented can support improvement by targeting their own resources.

Priority Neighbourhood Partnerships - this plan has been heavily influenced by the needs and priorities identified through the recent process of updating Priority Neighborhood Plans and Priority Neighbourhood Partnerships have an important role to play in commenting on future delivery

Locality Empowerment Groups – this plan has been heavily influenced by the needs and priorities identified through the recent process of creating Locality Plans and Locality Empowerment Groups have an important role to play in commenting on future delivery

Adult Learning Providers' Network and Youth Work Providers' Network - One of the unintended benefits of bringing partners together to share the process of developing this Plan was a renewed interest and commitment to closer ongoing collaboration. As a result there is a desire to establish and develop Providers' Networks for each to bring together those delivering youth work and adult learning respectively. Perceived benefits include sharing of information, identifying and addressing gaps in provision and unmet needs, access to wider funding streams (explore funding opportunities and scope for collaborative bids), shared knowledge of local provision, improved 'pipeline' progression, development of a wider skills and knowledge base, enhanced partnership working, better co-ordination of provision and a reduction in duplication. These groups will not have a governance role and care will be taken to ensure they complement and link to existing networks such as the Aberdeen City Employability forum

Youth Voice – Aberdeen City Youth Council and local youth forums have an important role in commenting and shaping youth work provision along with participants in youth work programmes and children's voices in school based provision.

Learners Voice - Maximise opportunities for adult learners to participate in planning their own learning and learning programmes

Regeneration Matters - is a forum of residents from priority neighbourhoods, which considers issues of interest across all the communities. They support community engagement and nominate members for the Fairer Aberdeen Board, which distributes funding to tackle poverty.

Governance & Accountability

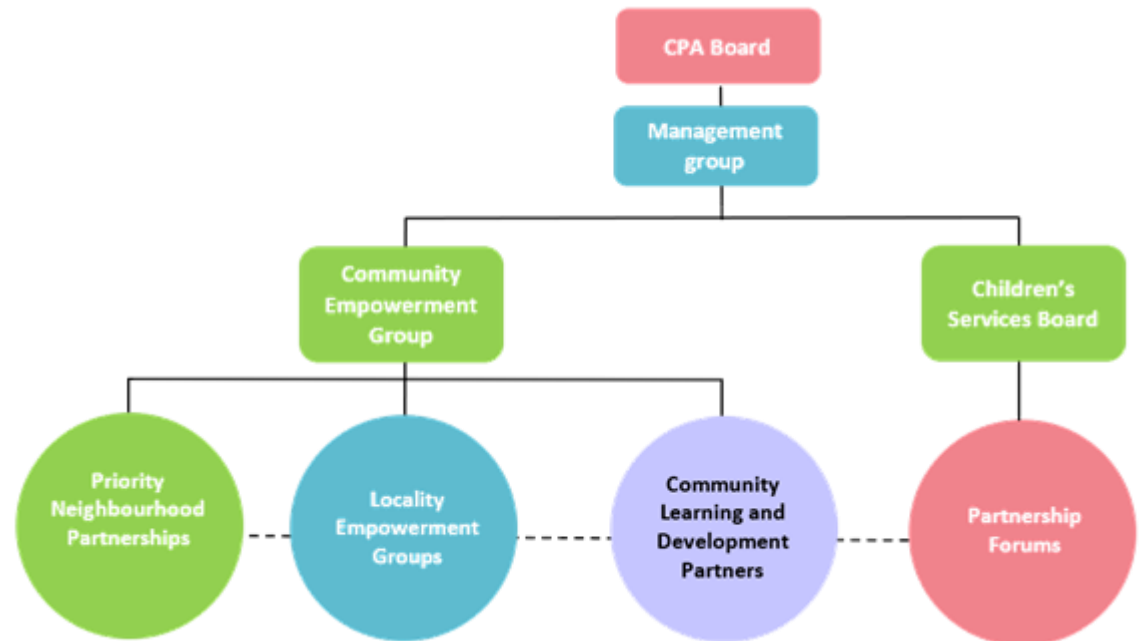

The Community Empowerment Group oversees and scrutinises the development and delivery of the Community Learning & Development Plan on behalf of Community Planning Aberdeen and partner organisations. This includes how the CLD Plan supports delivery of the Aberdeen City Local Outcome Improvement Plan and underpinning Locality Plans to ensure improved outcomes for people and communities across the City.

Aberdeen City Council's CLD Team leads the operational delivery of the CLD plan and is accountable to the Community Empowerment Group on behalf of CLD partners. The CLD Team facilitates effective joint working across CLD partners and with communities to deliver the plan and ensure communities are supported to engage in the priority areas outlined within this plan.

This involves working closely with the Locality Empowerment Groups, Priority Neighbourhood Partnerships and Partnership Forums which all have a role in working directly with communities to engage and empower them to make things better for themselves, their families and their communities.

The CLD Team will submit a full report against the CLD plan annually to the Community Empowerment Group and provide regular updates on progress, risks and issues at Community Empowerment Group meetings which are held monthly.

Community Learning and Development Managers Scotland (CLDMS) are developing a common set of performance indicators for the sector (KPI guidance). We will encourage their adoption across partners.
