Good evening,

I am writing to object to the short term let application for the above address which i believes closes today, i assume at midnight.

The reason for my objection is the property is a one bedroom flat and not fit to house 4 people. If 4 people approached Aberdeen City Council Housing dept for somewhere to live, the housing dept would not house 4 individuals in such a small property. A one bedroom flat should house a single person or a couple in a recognised relationship. Even if the living room is converted to a bedroom, the owner is simply cramming people for money gain. There would be no privacy. No Living area, just sleeping quarters. Four individuals sharing cooking & bathroom facilities. To allow 4 individuals to live in a one bedroom, even on a short term let, should not be seen as acceptable in todays society.

Kindest regards

Nicola James

Thanks [REDACTED]

1. From the letter of the objection, I understood that the reason for the objection was the property was a one-bedroom flat and not fit to house 4 people. I have to point out that the flat is a two-bedroom flat with a sizable living room and kitchen area. Each bedroom has a reasonable size and a double-bed. Please see attached the floor plan and some photos of the actual rooms in the flat. Our statistics of the previous bookings in the past year also show that over 80% of the total reservations were for one or two guests, and the rest for 3 to 4 guests, a family with children or a group of friends. We have very great guests' reviews - 9 out of 10 (Superb) on Booking.com and 4.92 out of 5 on Airbnb.com. Please also see attached some snapshots from the websites for your reference. We are just trying to say that we are not "simply cramming people for money gain" (quoted from the objection letter). We have been working hard all the time and we believe we've provided our guests with the great service & experiences when they visited our city. Please include these information into the report to the Committee.

Good place to stay both for the long and short-term. Brand new furniture, clean and spacious rooms, and nice internet connection. Well equipped kitchen, it was a pleasure to cook there.

3 great grocery shops in 10 minute's walk.

10-minute walk to Aberdeen University, and 30 minutes to the beach promenade.

The host always responded quickly to messages and was really nice and accommodating. The apartment was clean and neat and the area was very nice with old Aberdeen nearby. Walking distance to bus, restaurants and pubs. Recommend

Lovely place to stay and very central. A bit tiring for bringing stuff in and out during the stay as its on the 2nd floor, so lots of stairs! Great Host, Thank You
